ABOUT AKUPE, OUR PRODUCTS AND QUALITY

Charcoal “Akupé Rbt” by José Gómez

Akupe brand is established in Peru – South America, dedicated to the crafting of scarves made only with natural fibers. What you are going to see in this portfolio is the 08/09 collection which is entirely made of baby alpaca, one of the finest natural fibers in the whole world.

Akupe has a special commitment with the excellence in the crafting of our scarves, paying much attention to every detail to take care of our customer from the making to the sell and even after, listening to their needs to help them be even more satisfied with our scarves and service.

Akupe also cares for our main clients, the retail stores, taking the sales process very seriously, and making it as simple as possible for them. Providing them, easy access and support through the importation process, helping them to be final destination of the products, and increasing their overall percentage of earnings.

In the following pages you will find the models and suggested colours of the 08/09 collection to see for yourself the perfection of one of the most exclusive natural fibers in the world and the best crafting of the Andes.

We hope you like the 08/09 collection and if you have any questions or want to order an Akupack, please contact us.

Best Regards,

SHIPPING INFORMATION

Shipping by Akupe

Delivered to your door

We offer the best service from DHL to our customers worldwide. With the “Delivered to your door” service you will receive your order in whatever address you set for deliver.

When the customer chooses this shipping method we'll provide all the necessary documents and information in order to avoid some importation taxes (because of many trade agreements between Peru and the UK, United States, Canada and the European Union) in your country's custom. We will cover all the legal and taxes payments that are required by the Peruvian government.

Also, you'll need to pay all of the taxes and legal payments in your country, like the VAT (Value Added Tax), or any other regular corresponding payment.

The estimated time of arrival is 7 days approximately to the UK. The price for this service varies between £2.00 and £6.50 per scarf depending on the desired number of pieces

Your order will be insured by DHL, covering all the value of the order in case of damage or lost.

We recommend this method for small and medium sized orders.

Delivered to the Airport

You have the option to choose this method in which we will deliver your order to the nearest airport from you.

If you select this shipping method we'll also provide all the documents necessities so you can avoid some importation taxes, and we will cover all the legal and taxes payments that are required by the Peruvian government.

You will have to contract a custom agent, and perform all procedures and payments in order to withdraw your order.

Also, you'll need to pay all of the taxes or any corresponding payment.

The price for this service varies depending on the ordered quantity. If you are planning to make an order and to choose this shipping method, let us know, so we can make an estimated price depending on the volume of the order, and the final destination.

Your order will be insured by an external company, covering all the value of the order in case of damage or lost.

We recommend this shipping method for very large orders.

Shipping by the client

If for any reason you would like to pick up, or to contract a company, you can take charge of all of the importation procedure. We'll provide all the documents necessities so you can avoid some importation taxes, but the customer has to cover all the legal and taxes payments in Peru. We will only have responsibilities until the order leaves our warehouse. This method is recommended if the customer have experience with the importation and legal procedures, and also in case the customer has importation accounts with a mayor courier like DHL, TNT or Fedex.
